September 19, 2014

UGA College of Pharmacy Faculty Receive Seed Grants for Research, Teaching and Pharmacy Practice from CoP Foundation Funds

Dean's Pharmacy Special Endowment Fund (for support of research, education and special projects)

- Dr. Brian Cummings, “Role of p21 in Topotecan-Induced Prostate Cancer Cell Death”
- Dr. Azza El-Remessy, “Molecular Mechanisms of Obesity-Mediated Vascular Inflammation”
- Dr. Shelley Hooks, “Microglial RGS10 Regulation of Pro-Inflammatory Signaling in Neuropathic Pain”
- Dr. Eileen Kennedy, “Dissecting AKAP Complexes”
- Dr. Somanath Shenoy, “Mechanisms Regulating Endothelial to Mesenchymal Transition (EndoMT) and Vascular Remodeling in Pulmonary Arterial Hypertension”

R.C. Wilson Pharmacy Fund (for support of research and scholarship)

- Dr. David DeRemer, “Evaluation of the Effects of Obesity on the Epigenome in Acute Myeloid Leukemia Patients: Correlation with Clinical Outcome and Drug Response”
- Dr. Stephanie Phan, “Pain Assessment Documentation after Opioid Administration at a Community Teaching Hospital”
- Dr. Trina von Waldner, “Pharmacy Technician Continuing Education Initiative”
- Dr. Han-Rong Weng, “Analgesic Action Produced by Tecfidera® and its Underlying Mechanisms”
- Dr. Yujun Zheng, “Innovate Chemical Probes to Elucidate Biological Function of Lysine Succinylation”

Randy Ellison Community Pharmacy Fund (for enhancement of community pharmacy in the area of clinical and administrative sciences)

Collegiate reviewers over the past four years were:

Dr. James Bruckner, Dr. Brian Cummings, Dr. Susan Fagan, Dr. James Franklin, Dr. Shelley Hooks, Dr. Matthew Perri, Dr. Beth Phillips and Dr. Somanath Shenoy.